

Attachment to Revolution Composites POs issued under Government Contracts

U.S. Government Contract Provisions from the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR)

1. When the materials or products furnished are for use in connection with a U.S. Government contract or subcontract, the following provisions shall apply, as required by the terms of the prime contractor or by operation of law or regulation.
2. The following clauses set forth in the FAR in effect as of the date of the prime contract are incorporated herein by reference with the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. In all clauses listed herein, the terms “Government,” “Contracting Officer,” and “Contractor” shall be revised to suitably identify the contracting parties herein and affect the proper intent of the provision, except where further clarified or modified below. “Subcontractor,” however, shall mean “Seller’s Subcontractor” under this purchase order. The Seller, by signing its offer, hereby certifies compliance with the following clauses and is, therefore eligible for award.
3. Clauses in this document may not be applicable to specific orders due to the type of subcontract/purchase order to be issued, dollar thresholds under requirements of the FAR, DFARS or Public Law or Mandatory Flow Down requirements of a particular prime contract. Clauses not applicable for these reasons shall not be removed from this document and will be considered by all parties to be without force and effect.

The following FAR clauses are required to be flowed down to POs funded under US Government Prime Contracts:

U.S. Government Contract Provisions from the DEPARTMENT OF Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation SUPPLEMENT (DFARS)

1. When the materials or products furnished are for use in connection with a U. S. Government Department of Defense contract or subcontract, in addition to the FAR provisions, the following provisions shall apply, as required by the terms of the prime contractor or by operation of law or regulation. In the event of a conflict between these DFARS provisions and the FAR provisions, the DFARS provisions shall control.
2. The following clauses set forth in the DFARS, in effect as of the date of the prime contract, are incorporated herein by reference with the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. In all clauses listed herein, the terms “Government,” “Contracting Officer,” and “Contractor” shall be revised to suitably identify the contracting parties under this purchase order and affect the proper intent of the provision, except where further clarified or modified below. “Subcontractor;” however, shall mean “Seller’s Subcontractor” under this purchase order. The Seller, by signing its offer, hereby certifies compliance with the following clauses and is, therefore, eligible for award.
3. Clauses in this document may not be applicable to specific orders due to the type of subcontract/purchase order to be issued, dollar thresholds under requirements of the FAR, DFARS or Public Law or Mandatory Flow Down requirements of a particular prime contract. Clauses not applicable for these reasons shall not be removed from this document and will be considered by all parties to be without force and effect.

The following DFAR clauses are required to be flowed down to POs funded under US Government Prime Contracts:

Applies if this order involves the use of or access to articles, technical data or software that is subject to Export Control:

- a) Export Compliance. Subcontractor is advised that its performance of this Subcontract may involve the use of or access to articles, technical data or software that is subject to export controls under 22 United States Code 2751-2796 (Arms Export Control Act) and 22 Code of Federal Regulations 120-130 (International Traffic in Arms Regulations) or 50 United States Code 2401-2420 (Export Administration Act) and 15 Code of Federal Regulations 768-769 (Export Administration Regulations) and their successor and supplemental laws and regulations (collectively hereinafter referred to as the "Export Laws and Regulations"). Subcontractor represents and warrants that it is either 1) a U.S. Person as that term is defined in the Export Laws and Regulations, or 2) that it has disclosed to Buyer's Representative in writing the country in which it is incorporated or otherwise organized to do business, or if a natural person, all citizenships and US immigration status. Subcontractor shall comply with any and all Export Laws and Regulations, and any license(s) issued there under.
- b) Foreign Personnel. Subcontractor shall not give any Foreign Person access to Technical Data or software as those terms are defined in the applicable Export Laws and Regulations without the prior written consent of Buyer. Any request for such consent must state the intended recipient's citizenship(s), and status under 8 U.S.C. 1101 and 8 U.S.C. 1324 (the "Immigration and naturalization Act"), and such other information as Buyer may reasonably request. No consent granted by Revolution Composites in response to Subcontractor's request under this paragraph b) shall relieve Subcontractor of its obligations to comply with the provisions of paragraph a) or the Export Laws and Regulations, nor shall any such consent constitute a waiver of the requirements of paragraph a), nor constitute consent for Subcontractor to violate any provision of the Export Laws and Regulations.
- c) Indemnification. Subcontractor shall indemnify and save harmless Revolution Composites from and against any and all damages, liabilities, penalties, fines, costs, and expenses, including attorneys' fees, arising out of claims, suit, allegations or charges of Subcontractor's failure to comply with the provisions of this Article and breach of the warranty set forth in paragraph a). Any failure of Subcontractor to comply with the requirements or any breach of the warranty contained in this clause shall be a material breach of this Subcontract.
- d) Subcontracts. The substance of this clause shall be incorporated into any subcontract entered into by the Subcontractor for the performance of any part of the work under this Subcontract.

Notice of Labor Disputes:

Whenever Seller has knowledge that any actual or potential labor dispute is delaying, or threatens to delay, the timely performance of this purchase order, Seller shall immediately give written notice thereof, including all relevant information with respect thereto, to Buyer. Seller shall insert the substance of this clause, including this sentence, in any subcontract hereunder.

Citizenship or Authorized Foreign National Requirement:

(Clause may be invoked in writing by Buyer (i) at any times within performance of this purchase order, and (ii) without adjustment of any terms and conditions of this purchase order.) Persons assigned under this order to work in Buyer's facility need to have original documents sufficient to establish identity, and citizenship or authorized immigration status, and to present them upon initially reporting to work and when requested thereafter. For those individuals who are not U.S. citizens, one of the following, must be provided (Proof of permanent resident status may required at the discretion of the Buyer.):

(1) Alien Registration Receipt Card (INS Form I-151) with photograph; (2) Resident Alien Card (INS Form I-551) with photograph; (3) Temporary Resident Card (INS Form I-688); (4) Employment Authorization Card (INS Form I-688-A); (5) Declaration of Intent to Become a Citizen (INS Form I-772); Unexpired Foreign Passport with either – (a) An unexpired stamp reading “Processed for I-661, Temporary Evidence of Lawful Admission for permanent residence. Valid until (with date inserted). Employment authorized” or (b) An attached Form I-94, bearing the same name as the passport, which contains a current employment authorization stamp, so long as the proposed employment does not conflict with any restrictions/limitations on the I-94; (6) Employment Authorization Document (INS Form I-688-B); or (7) Employment Authorization Document (INS Form I-766).

Release of Information:

No release of any information, or confirmation or denial of same, with respect to this P.O. or other Revolution Composites projects, obtained in the performance of this P.O. will be made without the prior coordination and express written approval of Revolution Composites. This includes but is not limited to advertisements, brochures, new releases (including photographs, films, public announcements or denial or confirmation of the same, or interviews with news media representatives) and the like, but does not include the release of information necessary to enable Seller to successfully perform the contractual obligations. This provision shall apply equally to subcontractors and Seller shall include the substance of this provision including this sentence, in all subcontracts. This provision does not apply to information which is reportable to the U.S. Government pursuant to Public Laws or Regulations.

Notices and Assistance Regarding Patent and Copyright Infringement:

The Seller shall report to Revolution Composites and in reasonable written detail, each notice or claim of patent or copyright infringement based on the performance of this P.O. of which the Seller has knowledge. In the event of any claim or suit against Revolution Composites or Seller on account of any alleged patent or copyright infringement arising out of this performance of this P.O. or out of the use of any goods furnished or work or services performed hereunder, the Seller shall furnish to Revolution Composites, when required by Revolution Composites, all evidence and information in possession of the Seller pertaining to such suit or claim. Such evidence and information shall be furnished at the expense of the Seller. This clause shall be included in all Subcontracts.

Conflict Minerals:

Seller represents, warrants, and undertakes, at its sole cost to supply Goods under the Purchase Order in compliance with the Conflict Minerals provision (Section 1502) of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. Supplier commits to have in place a supply chain policy and processes to undertake (i) a reasonable inquiry into the country of origin of Conflict Minerals incorporated into products it provide to Buyer; (ii) due diligence of its supply chain, following a nationally or internationally recognized due diligence framework, as necessary, to determine if Conflict Minerals sourced from the Democratic Republic of the Congo and adjoining countries directly or indirectly support unlawful conflict there; and (iii) risk assessment and mitigation actions necessary to implement the country of origin inquiry and due diligence procedures.

Counterfeit Parts:

Seller represents and warrants that it has policies and procedures in place to ensure that none of the Goods furnished under this Order are “suspect/counterfeit parts” and certifies, to the best of its knowledge and belief that no such “suspect/counterfeit parts” have been or are being furnished to Buyer by Seller.

“Suspect/counterfeit parts” are parts that may be of new manufacture, but are misleadingly labeled to provide the impression they are of a different class or quality or from a different source than is actually the case. They also include refurbished parts, complete with false labeling, that are represented as new parts or any parts that are designated as suspect by the U.S. Government, such as parts listed in alerts published by the Defense Contract Management Agency under the Government-Industry Data Exchange Program (GIDEP).

Ethical Standards of Conduct:

Buyer is committed to conducting its business fairly, impartially, and in an ethical and proper manner. Buyer’s expectation is that Seller also will conduct its business fairly, impartially, and in an ethical and proper manner. Buyer’s further expectation is that Seller will have (or will develop) and adhere to a code of ethical standards. Seller’s employees are required to conduct company business with integrity and maintain a high standard of conduct in all business-related activities. Seller shall not participate in any personal business, or investment activity that may be defined as a conflict of interest, whether real or perceived. As a material obligation hereunder, Seller must immediately notify Buyer if, at any time during the term of this Order, Seller becomes aware that it has an actual or potential conflict of interest, as defined by FAR 9.5, DFAR 252.209-7009, including without limitation a relationship of any nature which may affect or which may reasonably appear to affect Seller’s objectivity or ability to perform the Work ("Conflict of Interest"). Buyer shall have the right to inspect any site of Seller involved in work for Buyer, and failure to comply with the obligations in this Article shall be cause for immediate termination without penalty or further liability to Buyer.
